

Today

Gold medals up for grabs 17

Pick of the day

Equestrianism Dressage team event
Germany, who have won every team event since 1980, will again be the team to beat on day two of the competition. Britain's Emma Hindle, right, was in fine form on the opening day. She will be joined by Jane Gregory and Laura Bechtolsheimer in the shake-up for the medals.
● 12.15-4.30pm

Brit watch

Naomi Folkard Women's archery
Britain's women finished in an agonising fourth place in the team event and Folkard, left, will be looking to do better in the individual. Folkard finished eleventh in Athens and will face Nami Hayakawa, of Japan, in her quarter-final. Two South Koreans look the ones to beat.
● 3-11.10am

Hidden gem

Eamon Sullivan Men's 100 metres freestyle
All the talk at the Water Cube has been about Michael Phelps and his quest for eight golds, but others have been making a splash. Sullivan, right, of Australia, set an amazing world record of 47.05sec in his semi-final and could become the first man to go sub-47 in the final.
● Finals 3-5.30am. Heats 11.30am-1.40pm

Best of the rest

Boxing Second round	6.30am-3pm
Gymnastics Men's all-around	4-6.43am
Hockey Women: Great Britain v New Zealand	2-3.30pm
Judo Women's -78kg, men's -100kg	5am-12.30pm
Rowing Semi-finals	8.30-9.50am
Sailing Finn, Yngling, Laser, 49er, R: SX	6am-noon
Tennis Quarter-finals	9am-3pm

TV and weather

Television
BBC One, live, 2.50am-noon; BBC Two, noon-12.45pm; BBC One, 12.45-5.15pm; BBC Two 5.15-6pm; BBC One, highlights, 7-8pm.
Weather
Heavy showers. Max temp 31C (88F), min temp 23C (73F). Visibility good. Pressure 1,006mb. Humidity 78 per cent.

Online

Ron Lewis is ringside on a crucial day for Britain's boxing hopes

Can Roger Federer salvage some pride in Beijing? Read our full report

24/7 news service, plus 8am and 4pm updates on your mobile — just text Games to 61008

Beijing 2008
timesonline.co.uk/olympics

Tomorrow

Gold medals up for grabs 16

Pick of the day

Athletics Heptathlon day one
The action begins at the bird's nest as the athletes take centre stage. Kelly Sotherton, right, starts her quest for gold in the women's multi-event discipline with the 100 metres hurdles, high jump, shot and 200 metres. With no Carolina Klüft this time, the Briton will be confident.
● Heats 2-6.10am. Heats and finals noon-4.20pm

Brit watch

Cycling Men's team sprint
Great Britain lost out to France in the UCI World Track Championships in March and will be eager for revenge. Three from Ross Edgar, Chris Hoy, left, Jason Kenny and Jamie Staff will race for Britain as they kick-start the track team's attempt to win a host of medals in the velodrome.
● 9.30am-noon

Hidden gem

Becky Downie Women's all-around gymnastics
The 16-year-old from Nottingham gets to mix it with the best from China, the United States, Romania and Russia. Downie, right, qualified nineteenth out of 24 and will be keen to improve on that in the final to eclipse Beth Tweddle's position in Athens four years ago.
● 4.15-6.07am

Best of the rest

Archery Men's final	3.30-11.10am
Boxing Second round	6.30am-3pm
Equestrianism Showjumping qualifying	12.15-3.45pm
Hockey Men: Great Britain v South Africa	2-3.30pm
Sailing Tornado, Star, 49er, 470	6am-noon
Swimming Heats and finals	3am-2.16pm
Tennis Men's doubles bronze medal	9am-3.30pm

TV and weather

Television
BBC One, live, 1.50am-noon; BBC Two, noon-12.45pm; BBC One, 12.45-5.15pm; BBC Two, highlights, 5.15-6pm; BBC One, highlights, 7-8pm; BBC Three, 8-9pm.
Weather
Sunny. Max temp 31C (88F), min temp 22C (72F). Visibility good. Pressure 1,008mb. Humidity 52 per cent.

